Numb. 7489.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 13. to Tuesday March 16. 1735.

Petersbourg, February 21.

THIS Court has lately received a Courier from Turkey, and another from the Borders of Persia; by the first they are informed that the Grand Signior has made the Caimacam Grand Vizier; by the latter, that Thamas Kouli Kan is at present at Derbent, and that he designs to oblige all the Princes of the Dagheſtan Tartars to submit to him; it is also said, that General has married the Daughter of Outmay, who is one of the chief Princes of the Dagheſtans, and was always a declared Enemy to this Court, even when the Czarina had her Troops in those Parts. The 17th Instant, a Courier was sent to General Lacy, who is with the Russian Troops near Prague, to inform him, that her Czarish Majesty has been pleased to promote him to the Rank of a Felt-Marshal: He is by Birth an Irishman, and is looked upon as the best Officer in this Country.

Berlin, March 17, N. S. On the 7th Instant, the King of Prussia came to Town from Potzdam; and the next Day Baron Demeradt, the Imperial Minister, and Count Althan, the Duke of Lorrain's Chamberlain, had jointly an Audience of his Prussian Majesty, in which they delivered the Notifications they were charged with from their respective Masters, of the Marriage lately celebrated between the Duke of Lorrain and the Archdutchess Maria Theresa. These Gentlemen had afterwards the Honour to dine with his Prussian Majesty; and as this was the only Business which brought the King to Town, he returned to Potzdam again immediately after Dinner. Count Althan having on the 10th received an Answer to the Letter of Notification which he presented to his Prussian Majesty, together with a Present of his Prussian Majesty's Picture set with Diamonds to the Value of 2000 Dollars, set out on the 12th for Wolfenbuttel, being charged with the like Commission of Notification to that Court.

St. James's, March 14.

This Day the Abbot Pareti, Minister from the Duke of Modena, had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, March 16, 1735-6.

Whereas the Dwelling House of Thomas Teddeman, of Harbledown, in the County of Kent, Esq; was in the Night Time, between the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Days of February last past, broke open and robbed of above Three Hundred and Ninety Pounds in Money, and other Goods, by Persons unknown. And whereas John Roberts of Canterbury, Apothecary, going to the House of the said Thomas Teddeman, his Father-in-law, on the 6th Day of March Instant, about Twelve of the Clock in the Night of the same Day, was attacked in a violent Manner by Persons unknown, in the Yard adjoining to the Dwelling House of the said Thomas Teddeman, in Harbledown aforesaid, and robbed of his Money, one of which Persons shot him through his Left Arm with a Pistol, which shattered it in so terrible a Manner, that the same was forced to be cut off above the bending of the Arm in about four Hours after he was shot as aforesaid: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in either of the said Robberies, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person that shot the said John Roberts) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, Edward Roberts, an Apothecary in Drury-lane, in the County of Middlesex, promises a Reward of Fifty Pounds for apprehending the said Persons, or any of them, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Edward Roberts.

Navy Office, March 11, 1735.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of July 1735, to the 31st of December 1735, according to his late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning, the following Days, viz. on Monday the 29th of this Month for the Captains, Tuesday the 30th for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 31st for the Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Navy-Office, March 8, 1735.

These are to give Notice, that the Two Months Wages in Six, due to His Majesty's Ships undermentioned, to the Times against them expressed, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-street, on Thursday the 23d of this Month, to the Seamens lawful Attorneys, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.

Captain, 31 December, 1735.
Princess Amelia, ditto.
Warwick ditto.

Pursuant to an Order of the House of Lords, Notice is hereby given, That a Bill, intitled, An Act for inclosing and dividing the common Field called Alderminster Common Field, Common Pastures, and other common Grounds in the Parish of Alderminster, in the County of Worcester, is committed to a Committee of Lords, who are to meet on Friday the 26th Day of March Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, in the Prince's Lodgings near the House of Peers.

London Assurance House, March 10, 1735.

The Court of Directors of the London Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut on Tuesday the 23d Instant, in Order to a Dividend; and that a General Court will be held at their House in Cornhill, London, on Wednesday the 7th of April next, at Eleven in the Forenoon,
